

Village of Melrose Park

Jaime Anguiano

Jaime Anguiano is a proud father of three. His 21-year-old son, Jaime II, is in his third year at Illinois State University studying law enforcement. His 19-year-old daughter, Ashley, is in her second year of college in Florida on an athletic scholarship at St. Leo University. His 3rd son, Jason, is in his 3rd year of high school, and after graduation, he plans to become a firefighter.

Jaime is a graduate of Dominican University. After graduating from Dominican University in 1996, Jaime moved to Melrose Park, and he has loved living here ever since.

Jaime is a devoted father who enjoys spending quality time with his children, not only providing fun activities but also instilling moral values so they can live healthy, productive lives. On any given day, you may see the Anguiano family at the park playing catch, kicking a soccer ball, or riding their bikes down our streets. Jaime has been a Little League Baseball coach for over 15 years.

Jaime is the youngest of six. He is fortunate to have two wonderful parents, who have been married for over sixty years. They taught Jaime the value of family, integrity, and education, which he in turn instills in his children.

Jaime has been employed as a Juvenile Probation Officer for the past 26 years. He loves his job because it gives him the chance to help shape the lives of some of our youth in Cook County.

Since 2008, Jaime has been honored to serve as a Trustee for the Village of Melrose Park. Jaime believes the trustee position enables him to have a positive impact in making Melrose Park a great place to live and raise a family.

Over the years, his professional career and his eagerness to give back have led him to volunteer for various not-for-profit organizations. He has served as a Board Member and Vice President of School District 89. Jaime was a Vice President of L.A.P.I.S. (Latin American Professionals Impacting Society) and of the Cook County Latino Employee Association. He was also a member of Toastmasters International. The focus of this organization is to help individuals become effective leaders. Jaime Anguiano's most gratifying volunteer work has been mentoring young men and women at Lincoln's Challenge Boot Camp.

Jaime Anguiano's commitment to community and strong family values is the driving force behind his service as a Trustee for the Village of Melrose Park. Jaime stated, "My belief that strong families make strong communities applies to the way a Village Board should act; they must work as a family to achieve the common good."
